CPE Credit Information

12.5 CPE credits will be awarded to persons completing this program.

Delivery Method: Group – Live  Field of Study:  Specialized Knowledge and Applications

Program Level: Overview.  No prerequisite or advance preparation is required.

Registration: Register at http://www.spratings.com/insurance16
•  Standard registration fee is $1500 per person.

Learning Objectives:
Conference attendees will recognize and identify the key issues impacting the insurance industry, such as:
• Challenges faced by insurance company CEOs, CFOs, and other executives, and their perspectives on the industry
• Property/casualty and life insurance sector trends, outlooks, and investment perspectives
• Developments in regulation, cyber risk, retirement market opportunities, alternative capital, and emerging risks

Program Cancellation / Refund Policy: In the event that Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services cancels a scheduled program, all registrants will be notified in writing. Registration fees will be refunded. In the event that a seminar is cancelled, Standard & Poor’s cannot be held liable for non-refundable transportation costs. In the case of inclement weather, or acts of God, if the seminar takes place, the registration fee is not refundable.

Complaint Resolution: Any complaints should be addressed to:
Christine Mehmel-Rourke
Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services, Events Marketing
55 Water Street, New York, NY 10041

Complaints can be faxed to 212.438.6698 or e-mailed directly to meetingsandconferences@standardandpoors.com. Phone contact: 212.438.2800. Complaints will be handled in as timely a manner as possible.

Standard & Poor’s is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.learningmarket.org.

Please check with your local state board whether it will accept CPE credits for this program.
CFA CE credits Information

As a participant in the CFA Institute Approved-Provider Program, Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services has determined that this program qualifies for 10.5 credit hour(s). If you are a CFA Institute member credit for your participation in this program will be automatically recorded in your CE tracking tool.

Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services Annual Insurance Conference is one of the industry’s must-attend events, where company executives and investment/credit professionals come together to share perspectives and analysis of current trends and issues in the insurance industry.

This course is designed to discuss and examine key issues impacting the insurance industry. These discussions, in addition to the topic of the Global Economic Outlook, will be led by senior Standard & Poor’s Ratings Services analysts who will share their outlooks and perspectives.